Resume Doctors Launches a Brand New Website

Unemployed? It's Your Resume

February 20th, 2009- Resume Doctors has just announced the launch of their new website, www.resumedoctors.com.au, a site that provides resume re-writing services so that job candidates can make the best first impression possible when searching for employment.

A job candidate's resume is without a doubt the most powerful document they possess, as it is often the first impression left with a potential employer. If a resume is not written properly, it can cause a candidate to lose career opportunities over and over again, as it is creating a negative first impression with the potential employer. Job candidates cannot afford to leave a poor first impression when they are in the hunt for employment.

Resume Doctors offers job candidates the solution to the first impression problem, a full service resume re-writing service at affordable pricing.

The team of professionals with Resume Doctors have extensive backgrounds in recruitment, giving them experience in reviewing resumes in all economic climates, both good and bad. So, they know what employers are looking for and can assist you in developing a powerful resume that will land you interviews with potential employers.

Job candidates can select from two Resume Doctor services, one tailored for entry level/graduate and non-management level positions and the other for executive level and management career paths.

The Resume Doctor process is simple and easy. Simply select the resume package that best matches your needs, upload and send your current resume and notes, and your new and improved resume will be returned to you within a matter of days. In many cases, your new resume will be delivered to you within 48 hours.

Your new resume will reflect your experiences, your accomplishments, your current skill sets and will effectively persuade the reader that you are the right person for the available position. The professionals at Resume Doctors will re-write your resume to reflect each of these important characteristics.
